

January 2025 Events

The Library will be closed December 30th to January 4th due to installation of a new carpet

Saturday, January 11th at 12:00 pm:

Raptors of Connecticut

If there is one group of birds that captivates birders and non-birders alike, it's the raptors! These fierce-looking predators roam the skies constantly vigilant for prey. In the presentation by the Audubon Society of Connecticut, participants will learn which species you can expect to see in Connecticut, how to identify them as well as what makes these birds such incredible hunters.

For all ages and abilities; no registration required.

Wednesday, January 15th, 1:00 pm: Book Discussion

Storied Life of A. J. Fikry by Gabrielle Zevin

Join us on the third Wednesday of each month for a lively discussion on a variety of fiction and non-fiction! This month's title is The Storied Life of A. J. Fikry by Gabrielle Zevin.

For ages 18 and up; to register and receive a book come into the library, or call us at (860) 886-1010.

Saturday, January 18th at 12:00 pm:

All About Owls

One of the most unique and mysterious family of birds, owls are most active when the rest of us are settling down for the night. In this webinar presented by the Audubon Society of Connecticut, participants will learn about the owl species of Connecticut and how to identify them by sight and sound! For all ages and abilities; no registration required.

Saturday, January 25th 10:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Adult and Teen Upcycle Sewing Workshop with Glimmering Girl Studio

Sewists of all experience levels are welcome as we take used material and turn them into something new! We will use sewing machines and other tools to design and sew our projects. (A small selection of fabric materials will be available.) All tools and supplies provided. Students are encouraged to bring their own sewing machines if desired.

Presented by Andrea Buka from Glimmering Girl Studio. Limit: 8; for ages 12 and up.
