

Preston Youth Services Advisory Board (PYSAB)

Seeking: One member

The Preston Youth Services Bureau and its Advisory Board strive to encourage positive healthy development in Preston youth and support their families by providing resources and programming that meets the needs of the community.

The PYSAB is currently seeking a “Youth Organization Representative” member to fill a vacancy. This member is to be a representative of a private youth serving agency that serves Preston youth. All PYSAB members shall serve a three-year term. However, if an appointed member is filling a vacancy created during an ongoing term, the role will be filled to the completion of the term for the designated vacancy. Terms will be staggered so that only three members’ terms expire annually.
